Taylor, Ricci & Associates has announced today that they are offering the lowest contingency fee discount on their already low industry prices for all new accounts that signup before or on Labor Day, September 7, 2015.

As a token of their appreciation, TRA will honor those who work hard to keep this country running with this discount. Realizing the great work that everyone has done to bounce the economy back from the past economic downfall is something TRA recognizes. Taylor Ricci & Associates appreciates and it's evident by the offer of this discount.
